

UNDERSTAND: JESUS ON THE ROAD

Luke 24:13-35

Awareness

Before listening, reflect:

- Have you ever experienced a moment of recognition, for example when your child sees their teacher in the grocery store or when you see a celebrity at the airport or when you encounter an old school friend after many years? What was that moment like?
- Are there any scripture passages you don't understand, that you wish Jesus could explain to you?

Can you remember what it was like to learn something new in school? You might have known your numbers and how to add them, but you did not yet understand multiplication until someone taught it to you. The same is true for our faith. In the story of the Road to Emmaus, Jesus meets two followers in their grief. He walks with them and explains to them “all the Scriptures pertaining to himself” (Luke 24:27). It is only once they understand and recognize Jesus that they develop faith in their risen Lord and Savior. Like those followers, we too need Jesus' guidance through the Holy Spirit to help us understand God's Word. As we seek that guidance and find that understanding, we will cultivate our faith.

Reflection

After listening, consider:

- When Jesus joins Cleopas and his friend on the road to Emmaus, he asks them, “What are you discussing together as you walk along?” (Luke 24:17). In doing so, he listens to their hearts and allows them to tell him what they're thinking about and discussing. How would you answer if Jesus asked you that question, or a similar question like “what are you thinking about” today? What does it mean to you that God is interested and cares to know what you think and feel?
- In segment 2, hosts Scott Hozzee and Darrell Delaney observe that it is in the rhythm of the breaking of the bread that Cleopas and his companion finally recognize Jesus. Why do you think participation in the Lord's Supper contributes to increased understanding and the cultivation of our faith even today?
- In segment 3, Scott says “So, from his [Jesus] vantage point now, at the right hand of the Father, he does walk with us and talk with us every day, just like with Cleopas and the other person; and he is praying for us to help us in our times of trial. He is praying for us to help us resist temptation. He is on our side, and with us every day.” What is the difference between knowing this to be true and feeling this to be true? How can understanding this truth deepen your faith?
- Which of the three passages discussed in segment 3—Hebrews 7:23-25, Colossians 3:1-11, and 1 Corinthians 15:1-6—gave you an “aha!” moment or led you deeper understanding of Jesus while listening? Which one would you like to spend more time studying?

Conclusion

Reflect back on your answers to the awareness question: “Are there any scripture passages you don’t understand, that you wish Jesus could explain to you?” Consider writing the passages down in a list or in a journal. Include the questions you have about the passages. Add to this journal list any time you have new questions. Revisit it once in a while to see where you have grown in your understanding. Think about how that growth has impacted your faith. Close your time in reflective prayer using some of the following prompts:

- Identify the passages that puzzle you and tell God what confuses you or why you seek clarity and understanding.
- Recognize how you’ve grown in faith. Give thanks for the answers to prayer and the scriptures you now understand.
- Ask for the Holy Spirit to increase your understanding. Pray for an “our hearts were burning” (Luke 24:30-32) experience.
